

Prepartum Pelvic Pain

Kathryn Hallacy

Test your knowledge of Pelvic Pain in the Pregnant Woman

- Across
- 4 The pelvis tilts more _____ during pregnancy
 - 6 "Extension" of the sacrum
 - 8 Hormone responsible for increasing laxity
 - 9 "Flexion" of the sacrum
 - 10 _____ lordosis increases during pregnancy
 - 11 Used to provide external stability to the pelvis
 - 12 Maximum # of minutes to remain supine in 2nd and 3rd trimester
 - 14 A positive _____ test can indicate femoral fracture
 - 15 Separation of the rectus abdominus
 - 16 This joint may also be involved when SIJ dysfunction is present

- Down
- 1 Position contraindicated for patients past in 2nd or 3rd trimester
 - 2 The scapula become more _____ during pregnancy
 - 3 Progressive hip pain and lateral thigh pain may indicate _____
 - 5 _____ deepest muscle layer of pelvic floor is called the _____
 - 7 _____ Ligament pain is caused by the increasing size of the _____
 - 13 _____ maternal age is a risk factor for pelvic girdle pain